GRIT Resilience Training

FOR EDUCATION

Lyda Hill Institute for Human Resilience

GRIT Resilience Training is a free workshop developed at the Lyda Hill Institute for Human Resilience at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs.

GRIT-4ED is a free five-hour training designed specifically for educators and those working the school and education environment. The purpose of the training is to teach supportive, coping skills for colleagues, families, and students in our school communities. Participants will learn vital information and skills about how to build resilience, a person's ability to cope with traumatic events. This training is available in five self-paced videos. Participants will also receive a workbook and a variety of resources for self and others.
